Kia-Ora Farm and Gardens, Cullompton and National Trust Killerton, Broadclyst Day trip by coach on Wednesday 7th September 2022

Kia-Ora Farm's peaceful ten-acre garden encompasses lawns, lakes and ponds, which, together with extensively-planted borders, a bog garden and mature trees, provide an environment in which nature thrives.

National Trust Killerton is famous for its rare trees and shrubs, and provides year-round interest. Beside the house, The Admiral's Lawn is bordered by tender perennials whilst the Terrace Garden includes herbaceous flowering beds and obelisks for annual climbers. In the formal garden, a memorial to Sir Thomas Acland marks his favourite spot overlooking the Devonshire countryside.

Refreshments will be provided on arrival at Kia-Ora Farm. We will arrive at Killerton in time for lunch and members may purchase their own refreshments from the café.

Travel Insurance

Please note that the Cornwall Garden Society does not carry travel insurance for members and cannot accept liability for personal injury and consequential loss sustained during the course of an outing.

If you do not already have relevant travel insurance cover, it is strongly recommended that you take out comprehensive travel insurance in relation to the trip that you are booking to cover, in particular, cancellation, medical and incidental expenses in the event of illness or injury, and personal accident. Such insurance is readily available, irrespective of age, from travel agents or online from a variety of providers such as P J Hayman & Co Ltd Coach Plus (02392 419855) and Global Travel Insurance Services Ltd (01903 235042).
